Warning of Copyright Restrictions

The copyright law of the United States (Title 17) governs the making of photocopies or other reproductions of copyrighted material. Under certain conditions specified in the law, libraries and archives are authorized to furnish a photocopy or other reproduction. One of these specified conditions is that the photocopy or reproduction is not to be "used for any purpose other than private study, scholarship, or research." If a user makes a request for, or later uses, a photocopy or reproduction for purposes in excess of "fair use," that user may be liable for copyright infringement. This institution reserves the right to refuse to accept a copying order if, in its judgment, fulfillment of the order would involve violation of copyright law.

Duplication of images from the collection of the Historical Society of Amherst, N.H., is governed by the foregoing policy. Further reproduction of images from the Society's collections is permitted only after the completion of the "Application for Image Publication." The completion of said application does not imply clearance of any copyright restrictions other than those vested in the Historical Society of Amherst, N.H. It is the responsibility of the party using the images from the collections of the Historical Society of Amherst, N.H., to ascertain and clear all copyright restrictions.
